

Final Student Quiz

Name: _____

Date: _____

I. VOCABULARY MATCHING

Directions: Match each of the words below with the letter of the definition that best describes them.

- K 1. plot
- M 2. tone
- H 3. crisis
- J 4. point of view
- B 5. resolution
- C 6. foil
- G 7. symbol
- A 8. parallel plotting
- I 9. complication
- E 10. in media res

- A. technique of presenting more than one story line at the same time
- B. the conclusion of a story or novel plot
- C. a character that serves as a contrast for another character
- D. the central source of tension and drama in a story or novel plot
- E. technique that begins the action of a story at the climax of the central conflict
- F. the characteristic ways an author uses language
- G. a person, place, or object that also stands for an idea other than itself
- H. the peak of dramatic tension within a chapter
- I. any obstacle in the plot that leads to increased conflict
- J. the perspective from which a story or novel is told
- K. the arrangement of story events that defines a novel's structure
- L. the methods authors use to communicate characters to readers
- M. clues that express the attitude of the author or narrator

(continued)